Course Description

Immigration, the movement of people from their native lands to foreign lands has become more significant today than ever. It impacts both the areas of origin and destination. This course focuses on the impact of immigration on race and ethnicity in contemporary United States. In fact, the United States accepts more immigrants than any other country in the world. Immigrant population is growing and its impact has become more noticeable. About 13% of the US population is foreign-born, and 21% of American-born children have at least one foreign-born parent. However, today’s immigrant groups are different from previous groups. They are more likely to be non-European and are either from Asia, Latin America, or the Caribbean, regions that over 80% of immigrants currently claim as homelands.

This course will examine immigration, race, and ethnicity in contemporary America in general. Specifically, we will examine why people migrate to the United States, the changing face of the United States and its sociocultural, educational, and political implications.

We will briefly examine the history of migration to the United States first, followed by current migration trends. Then, we will investigate how contemporary immigrants are incorporating into the US society. We will also examine the different ways the US is being affected by these diverse groups of immigrants. Issues of race and ethnicity, assimilation, language, racial and ethnic identities, education, transnationalism, upward mobility, etc. will be discussed in this class. These goals will be achieved through reading assignments of articles and textbook, notes, and videos that are intended to illustrate various aspects of particular issues under consideration.
Learning Objectives

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Know the concepts and theories that explain why people migrate
2. Understand and explain why the American population is diverse
3. Discuss why race and ethnicity-related issues are still affecting the lives of Americans
4. Describe how the US is affected by contemporary immigrants
5. Analyze ways that American cultural, economic, political, and social landscapes are being changed by contemporary immigrants.
6. Apply immigration-related concepts and theories to explain real life events.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Readings and Assignments: Students are expected to do all assigned readings for each week and be prepared to share their views on the different issues raised in the readings.
1. Quizzes: (20 points—EXTRA CREDIT OPPORTUNITY). There will be NO make-up quizzes. A quiz will be given for every module, starting Jan 27, 2016. Questions will be drawn from materials covered (notes, textbook, articles, and videos). The quiz will be posted for 72 hours. However, you will have between 10 and 25 minutes to take the quiz (depending on the number of questions) once you begin. Also, you will have only ONE attempt. The quizzes will turn on from Wednesdays (6:00 pm) to Saturdays (6:00 pm). You must complete the quiz during this time.

2. Video Evaluations: (50 points total)—Two videos will be shown in this class. The purpose is to provide students with an opportunity to think about and comment on particular issue(s) that is/are being covered. You are required to submit at least a one-page typed-written (font size =12) reaction paper of the video.

General guidelines for all the video evaluations

While you’re viewing a video, think about and write down the following:

a. What are the most important points or ideas in the video?

b. What significance do these ideas have for a course of this nature?

c. Write a brief response to at least one major issue discussed. Use your sociological imagination here. Make sure you integrate relevant concepts and theories that you learn in the textbook, videos, notes, etc. to substantiate your views.

d. Do you think the video is relevant to the class topic under discussion (here you state if the video presents anything to illustrate or explain a point raised in the text or in class discussion? Did the video make you look at anything differently?) If you think the video is not relevant to the topic, feel free to say so but you must be certain to explain your position.

e. Did you find anything problematic?

Video 1—Monday, Jan 25 (6:00 pm) to Thursday, Jan 28 (6:00 pm)—See Assignments tab

Video 2—Monday, Mar 7 (6:00 pm) to Thursday, Mar 10 (6:00 pm)—See Assignments tab

3. Discussions: (50 points total). Discussion questions are posted in the Discussions tab. You are required to POST in your comments, read all of the posts of your classmates, and reply to two of the posts that you read. Please make sure you hit ‘QUOTE’ when you are replying to someone’s post or mention the name of the person whose post you are responding to, otherwise, I will not be able to follow what you are saying.

In your discussions, be as detailed as possible. Refrain from answers like “I agree”, “yes, this is true”, etc. Please make sure you explain why you agree or think the posting is good or true. Whatever you say, make sure you explain why you think the way you do. What I will be looking for in the postings is how well students integrate concepts and theories learned in the text into their discussions. Show off your Sociological Imagination!!! Students will have Fridays from 6:00 pm to Mondays 6:00 pm to post and reply to two of their classmates’ posts. After 6:00 pm on Mondays, you will NOT be ABLE to post your answer to the discussion question. NOTE: You have to post your answer for the discussion question(s) FIRST before you see the posts of your classmates.

90%-100% -- Very detailed answer. Answer/post has an extensive use of relevant textbook material –concepts and theories.

80%-89% -- Detailed answer. Answer/post contains a high level of use of textbook material—concepts and theories.

70%-79% -- Moderate answer. Answer/post has a moderate use of relevant textbook material—concepts and theories.

60-69% -- Basic answer. Answer/post contains a superficial knowledge of relevant textbook material --concepts and theories.

Dates for make-up assignments will be posted. Make-up assignments will be given during PRE-FINAL WEEK only. I DO NOT need to know if you missed an assignment. Please DO NOT e-mail to inform me about your missed assignment. Make-up assignments will NOT cover the same material that you missed. Please check announcements and discussions tabs daily. There is no make-up exam for final exam.
Please remember: I do not give “extra credit” opportunities to any single student, otherwise I will need to do so for the entire class. Also, do not make up stories about having problems with Blackboard, because I will track your time log and history.

ADA Policy
As per the Office of Disability Accommodation, a syllabus for a course SHALL include the following statement:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://disability.unt.edu/. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Add/Drop Policy

Please refer to the UNT Faculty Handbook or your department regarding the Add/Drop Policy.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses:

Federal Regulation

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F–1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F–1 student’s course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.
