BEFORE WRITING THE PROFESSOR PLEASE READ
http://m.wikihow.com/Email-a-Professor. (Link also available on the blackboard site)

There is a blackboard site for this course where text and workbook assignments can be accessed. (https://learn.unt.edu/) In addition copies of documents will be placed there as well (e.g. the syllabus).

I. Course Goals: This is an introductory American government course designed to examine the development of the institutional structures of the U.S. and Texas political systems. To be able to analyze the US political system, we will be adopting an explicitly Comparative Perspective, i.e. how does the US political system compare with the political system of other countries. There are two reasons for this. First, being able to understand the development and operation of the political systems of other countries, helps us understand why the American political system developed in the way it did. Further, comparison offers potential alternatives to consider if one were interested in effecting improvement in the US system. The second is more practical: the instructor is primarily trained as a comparative political scientist, and has extensive experience studying other political systems, particularly in Europe, the former Soviet Union, and Africa. Thus, every effort will be made to understand the US political system in comparison with other political systems.

By the end of the semester, students will be able to identify, analyze, and evaluate the national institutions of government—Congress, the Presidency, the Bureaucracy, the Judiciary, and related state level institutions. Student learning objectives include:

1.1 Demonstrating the ability to identify and explain constitutionalism.
1.2 Comprehending the principles of Federalism.
1.3 Synthesizing the roles of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of government.
2.1 Demonstrating an awareness and recognition of the scope of democratic theory.
2.2 Differentiating between civil rights and civil liberties.

This course satisfies state mandated requirements for a course emphasizing the U.S. and Texas constitutions.

II. Required Texts:
There is one textbook for the course required for purchase.

The textbook is packaged with the 1040 workbook Laws and Institutions, First Edition.

Both of these are available for purchase online. The instructions on how to link with textbook are available on the blackboard site for the course under the file “UNTbundlequickstart.pdf”.

As for purchasing access, students can either purchase passkeys from the bookstore which you can use to access the webtext or you can purchase access directly from Soomo

III. Policy on attendance: I do not take regular attendance. Whether you choose to attend or not is entirely up to you. However, much of what appears on the exams will be taken directly from lectures, so it is very much in your interest to attend on a regular basis, so please do so.

IV. TAMS Students: If you are absent for any reason, you are required to file an absence report with the TAMS Academic Office. In addition, as your professor, I will send periodic attendance reports to the TAMS Academic Office. TAMS specifically prohibits the use of laptop computers or other electronic devices (head phones and cell phones, for example) during the class lecture. Audio recorders are OK as well as electronic tablets.

Department of Political Science POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: The Political Science Department adheres to and enforces UNT’s policy on academic integrity (cheating, plagiarism, forgery, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty and sabotage). Students in this class should review the policy (UNT Policy Manual Section 18.1.16), which may be located at http://policy.unt.edu/sites/default/files/untpolicy/pdf/7-Student_Affairs-Academic_Integrity.pdf. Violations of academic integrity in this course will be addressed in compliance with the penalties and procedures laid out in this policy. Students may appeal any decision under this policy by following the procedures laid down in the UNT Policy Manual Section 18.1.16 “Student Standards of Academic Integrity”.

Acceptable Student Behavior:
Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

Violations of academic integrity in this course will be addressed in compliance with the penalties and procedures laid out in this policy.

VI. University of North Texas-Statement of ADA Compliance: The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation.

Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

VII. Course Requirements: On September 2, there will be a syllabus quiz (in class). Be prepared by reading carefully the syllabus. This is worth 30 points. There will be three major exams scheduled for this term. The first is scheduled for October 2 and is worth 200 points. The second is scheduled for November 4 and is worth 200 points. The third is the final examination (scheduled for December 9, 8:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.) is worth 250 points and is a comprehensive examination.
In addition workbook assignments are worth a total of 320 points. These assignments are designed to help you prepare for the examination.

Grades: Your final grade will be calculated based on 1000 total points.

THERE WILL BE NO EXTRA CREDIT OFFERED TO INDIVIDUALS FOR THIS COURSE. IT IS FUNDAMENTALLY UNFAIR TO OFFER EXTRA CREDIT TO INDIVIDUALS AND NOT TO THE ENTIRE CLASS. SO PLEASE DO NOT ASK FOR EXTRA CREDIT.

Anything in the lectures, class discussion, and assigned readings is fair game for exam questions.

The workbook provides you with additional resources for your learning experience. Each chapter corresponds with the topic under discussion in class. Assignments will be turned in on the Blackboard site. If you complete the workbook assignment by the assigned due date on the syllabus, you can earn up to 100% of the points. If you turn the workbook assignment late, after the due date, you can earn up to 50% of the points, up until TWO WEEKS AFTER THE DUE DATE. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL LATE ASSIGNMENTS BEYOND THE FINAL DUE DATE BE ACCEPTED. If you have a question about how your assignment is graded or you think there is an error in the grade assignment, please contact the teaching assistant assigned to prior to the next class meeting after the grade is posted. FAILURE TO DO SO WAIVES YOUR ABILITY TO APPEAL THE ASSIGNMENT GRADE.

VIII. Miscellaneous: If you miss class, it is incumbent on you to be responsible for the notes. You should ask one of your classmates for notes in the unlikely event that you miss class. Do not ask either the TA or me for notes from the class.
