3 Credit Hours Online

Professor Information:

Dr. Scott H. Belshaw, Ph.D

Office: Chilton Hall #273E Telephone: (940) 565-4591

Email: Scott.Belshaw@unt.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An analysis of the incidence, patterns and causes of criminal violence; the characteristics of particular crimes (e.g. murder, robbery, rape, domestic abuse, terrorism), and societal reaction to such violence.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course students will:

• Understand the major causes of violent crime
• Demonstrate an understanding of the major ethological, biological and sociological theories of violence

• Communicate explanations for violent crimes
• Understand the major explanations for sexually motivated crimes
• Explain the differences between mass murder and serial murder
• Critically assess and develop creative solutions to violent crime problems

Students will also be responsible for additional reading, video links, and other material that will be posted on Blackboard. Students are responsible for examining all assigned material. Such material will be fair game in the course, and in particular, for examinations.
COURSE NOTES AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

Please make sure to have your official UNT email forwarded to your preferred email address (if different) to receive important updates, class cancellations (if applicable), and generally, so I can reach you if necessary.

The announcement board in Blackboard will be used for primary communication to the class as a whole. I advise you check the announcements section frequently.

Please send questions regarding the class to me at Scott.Belshaw@unt.edu. Do not email me through Blackboard. You can expect a response from one of us within 24-hours. With that said, if we do receive several emails regarding a common topic, an announcement will be posted or a mass email will be sent addressing the issue instead of responding to each individual email.

It is your responsibility to utilize a computer system that works and is compatible with the UNT online system/Blackboard Learn. Please see Blackboard Learn: Getting Started under the “Start Here” link for further information on system requirements.

Utilizing a compatible computer system is especially critical during examination times. I would recommend that you take your exams on the UNT campus if possible. If that is not possible, I would recommend you avoid waiting until the last minute to take your exam in case problems arise.

For connection/browser issues or questions regarding how to work Blackboard, please contact the UNT Helpdesk at 940-565-2324 or http://www.unt.edu/helpdesk/.

TEXTBOOKS:

The assigned texts listed below are required for all students enrolled in this class. Reading assignments are noted in the course calendar. All students are expected to read the assigned chapters prior to the date specified in the course calendar. The assigned readings will serve as a foundation for the discussion of issues in class as well as examination material.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

The following section lists the required components of this course as well as the points that may be earned toward the final course grade for each component.

How the Course is Organized

The course is divided into learning units; for example Unit 1, Defining Violence comprises of material that takes about 2 weeks to cover. At the conclusion of each Unit you will have the opportunity to take a quiz related to the specific material covered in that unit.
What Should Students Do First?

To access the course, login to Blackboard at learn.unt.edu. (Please read above at “Access and Navigation” for additional login instructions.)

Select appropriate course under “My Courses.” The homepage for the class will include links to the assignments, course information, reading materials, and the messaging system. All course emails will be sent through the Blackboard messaging center or the UNT email system; therefore it is your responsibility to check both regularly.

Correspondence for the course may also take place via UNT e-mail. Due to privacy regulations, we will no longer communicate with students using their personal email addresses. If you send an email to me, you must do so from your UNT student email address. It is your responsibility to check your UNT student email address regularly to ensure that you do not miss any course communications.

You will be responsible for completing the assignments listed in the syllabus by the due dates. No late assignments will be accepted (Please read below for more information on assignments, tests, and due dates).

How Students Should Proceed Each Week for Class Activities

Students should follow the syllabus. As the course develops, new Units will become available to you. You may not work ahead on Units that have not opened yet. Please refer closely to the Course Calendar for the dates of each Unit, as well as the dates for all assignments. On your homepage you will have a folder marked “Units”. Click on this folder. Click on the appropriate Unit to find the required readings and assignments. Further instructions for the assignments will be found within the reading.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. The student will access and follow all course instructions found in the unit content area of the Blackboard course.
2. The student will complete the assigned ‘online’ exams/quizzes by accessing the ‘assessment’ tool in the Blackboard course: individually for unit quizzes and under the ‘exam’ section for mid-term and final examinations

Makeup Policy:

There are no make-up tests/quizzes/assignments in this class with the exception of authorized absences according to University policies prescribing authorized absences in certain situations. I reserve the right to consider extreme circumstances and modify this rule. Those in athletics, those who are absent for religious holidays, and/or those involved in other school supported activities that require being absent from class will be allowed make up if proper procedures are followed in requesting an excused absence. I must have written documentation in advance that you will be away from class for the absence to be excused (e.g., traveling for a basketball game).
There is absolutely no make-up for assignments turned in late unless authorized as a result of university related absence or through prior consultation and approval by myself. Assignments as a result of authorized absences must be turned in within 3 days of returning from the authorized absence.

Note: I am reasonable, so if you must miss an assignment for an unavoidable and “legitimate” circumstance, please let me know as soon as possible so as to get you back on track. Communication is the key.

Authorized Absences:

Absences are authorized only in cases of participation in school sponsored activities and/or religious holidays. For an excused absence due to a school sponsored activity, students must be approved in advance by the department chair and academic dean. Within three days after the absence, students must obtain authorized absence cards from the Dean of Students for presentation to instructor. Students who wish to request an excused absence for religious holidays can do so and will be excused from class as long as they make a request within the required time frame set by the University (see the most recent undergraduate catalog). Notification must be in writing so that I may have it for my records. You must arrange to make up any work missed during the excused religious absence or school sponsored activity.

GRADE BREAKDOWN: Grades are based on your earned point totals for the semester.

Exams: There will be a mid-term examination and a final examination, each worth 40 points. Examinations will cover textbook readings and the material covered in class. There will also be Unit Quizzes. All quizzes and Exams are graded and will contribute to your final grade. There will be one multiple choice quiz for each unit. Each multiple choice quiz is worth 15 points.

Questions will be drawn from the course textbook and materials contained in the course notes. Exam and quiz questions will also be drawn from materials you are referred to in the course notes e.g. Look up and familiarize yourself with the Ford Pinto case. You are expected to look up this case and be sufficiently familiar with the material to answer questions about the case and the outcome.

Discussion Questions: For each unit, there will be a discussion board to respond to. You must respond to the question and one of your classmates for full credit. Each discussion board is worth 5 points.

Total points available 40 (Mid-Term) plus 40 (Final) plus 120(Eight quizzes) Plus 25 (5 Discussion Boards) = 225 total

QUZZES AND EXAMS ARE TAKEN FROM THE COURSE NOTES AND THE COURSE TEXTBOOK AND MAY INCLUDE MATERIAL NOT COVERED IN THE ON-LINE COURSE LECTURE MATERIAL.
IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT YOU READ EVERY DESIGNATED CHAPTER BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO TAKE A UNIT QUIZ.

Grades: A 200-225
B 180-199
C 170-189
D 160-179

This reading schedule includes any University holidays. Even if we do not have class you will still be responsible for the material covered.

PARTICIPATION, PREPARATION AND BEHAVIOR:

To be successful at learning and understanding the material in this class, it is essential that you read and complete the assigned material and engage in thoughtful online discussions. Your attendance and active participation, along with your willingness to engage in thoughtful discussions will be taken into account at all times during the semester. An online classroom, at least during times of online discussion, is a place to express ideas, opinions, and engage in thoughtful discussions. Students will respect the views and opinions of others at all times or their status in the course will be examined. In sum, simply be appropriate during online interactions. Each student brings unique insight and perspectives, and that can make for a very interesting and lively discussion forum, but just please be appropriate and respectful of others. Please review the undergraduate catalog concerning conduct which adversely affects the university community.

Miscellaneous:

The material posted online is my personal intellectual property or that of the University of North Texas. You may not utilize the material for other than class purposes.

SYLLABUS CHANGES:

I reserve the right and have the discretion to change this syllabus. While every effort will be made- to follow this syllabus as closely as possible, it is sometimes the case that the syllabus must be modified. In the case that the syllabus needs to be adjusted, I will announce such adjustments in class. I will make every effort to ensure that any changes to the syllabus benefit the class as a whole. It is the student’s responsibility to check announcements so that any and all syllabus changes are documented. Failure to obtain syllabus changes because of failure to check and read announcements does not constitute a defense against missed assignments, test dates, and other applicable changes.
ACADEMIC HONESTY:

It is expected that each student will do his/her own work. Cheating, including plagiarism, on any assignment may result in a zero for the semester. This is criminal justice, how could anyone even contemplate cheating when you are studying to work in a system based on trust and honor? With that said, I reserve the right to pursue the formal channels for plagiarism/cheating set down in the UNT Policy Manual. All students are urged to read the UNT Code of Student Conduct and Discipline located in the UNT Policy Manual (Section 5.2). Academic dishonesty will be handled on a case-by-case basis with the final disposition being at the discretion of the professor.

A GRADE OF “INCOMPLETE”:

I – Incomplete; a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a semester and only if a student (1) is passing the course; (2) has justifiable reason (medical or other emergency circumstance) why the work cannot be completed on a schedule; and (3) arranges with the professor before the end of the semester to finish the course at a later date by completing specific requirements that the professor must list on the grade sheet. All work in the course must be completed within the specified time (not to exceed one year after taking the course). If you do not meet the specifications for this grade, you will need to see the Registrar’s Office about resigning from the University.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY:

My lectures are protected by state and common law and by applicable federal copyright laws. You are not authorized to make any commercial use of them without express prior permission from myself. Persons who do make use of my lecture notes for commercial purposes (i.e. sell your class notes to an internet site or other commercially-related business) will be held legally liable.

ODA STATEMENT:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student.
For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

I will make every attempt possible to accommodate anyone with a documented disability. Please let me know in advance of exams or other class requirements so I have enough time to send exams or other materials to ODA. You must provide me with the appropriate exam request forms from ODA prior to the exam in order to take the exam at ODA.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses: Federal Regulation

(G) For F–1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F–1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other oncampus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student’s responsibility to do the following: (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.
Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the oneweek deadline.

GRADES:
Every semester, at least a couple of students come to my office around the end of the semester asking, “What can I do to raise my grade?” My policy and statement concerning that question is this:

• If you focus on learning and being responsible (i.e., keeping up with assignments, completing extra credit when given, etc.), your final grade will reflect this.

• I do not give individual extra credit. If and when I offer an extra credit assignment it will be offered to the entire class. I suggest you take advantage of extra credit whenever it is offered.

• Borderline grades will be evaluated on a case by case basis and my policy is this: if a student is 1 percentage points away from the next letter grade (borderline grade), has completed all extra credit opportunities, and has not missed more than the allotted number of absences, I will bump them to the next letter grade. I will not raise any grades that are not borderline grades. Not all borderline grades will be raised. Grades are not based on how much I like a person. They are based on work and performance, period.

ALL GRADES ARE FINAL AFTER ENTERED IN THE COMPUTER. The final decision on whether or not to raise a grade is solely at the discretion of the professor. Do not email me to change your grade because you did not like the grade you earned!

FINAL POINTS:

Please do not hesitate to come to me with any questions, problems, or issues you may have. Do not wait to address these issues until it is too late for you to receive an acceptable grade. I think you will find me to be very approachable and eager to address any problems with you in a professional manner.

• To do well in this class the student must complete all assigned readings prior to that class date. (READ!, READ!!, READ!!!) This will allow for a better discussion and understanding of the material. I take test questions from the book and discussions!!!

• DO NOT highlight and copy text from the internet and turn it in as your own work. It is easy for me to catch you doing this. I type a sentence into Google or Yahoo and it will pull up the entire text. You will not receive a good grade for doing this!! This includes when doing blackboard assignments.

• If you are having academic or even a personal problems please feel free to talk to me. I am here to help. I might understand more than you think!
Although we will attempt to adhere to the schedule of topics listed and described below, the course schedule should be viewed as highly flexible. I am not interested in covering the material as fast as possible simply for the sake of covering it. Rather, I want to cover the material that we do cover thoroughly, and at a pace that is conducive to learning the material instead of simply covering the material. Consequently, it is your responsibility to come to class, know where we are in the listing of assigned readings irrespective of this schedule, and know the material that we have covered prior to any reading assessment, examination, and/or presentation. Further, there may be additional items added to the calendar throughout the course of the semester (i.e. video presentations and/or handouts).

It will be your responsibility to keep up with these as well.
