Course Description
The course focuses on the fundamentals of non-litigation-based conflict resolution and negotiation strategies for a variety of settings. Students have the opportunity to further develop their negotiation skills through assigned readings, written assignments and exams, videos and online discussions and instruction.

This course is 100% online, which means that all content will be delivered online and all course work must be submitted online.

Instructional Methods
Online instruction consists of a variety of instructor’s and third-party videos, and written materials relating to the journals, exercises, exams and a final group project. Instructors also communicate throughout the course via synchronous online discussions.

Course Requirements

Attendance and participation: Significant amounts of time will be spent in synchronous group discussions via Zoom. Each student is expected to make meaningful and substantial contributions to these discussions. In particular, students are expected to demonstrate the critical and creative thinking, reasoning, and questioning skills that will be used in actual negotiations.

Reading assignments: Each week’s reading assignment must be completed prior to completion of all assignments.

Videos: A variety of course concepts are illustrated, explained and/or demonstrated through videos. Students must view these prior to completing or as a part of various assignments.

Written assignments: Students must complete online assignments that require them to analyze negotiation scenarios or to reflect on their negotiation experiences.

Exams: Students are required to complete an exam every few weeks. Each exam is designed to help students assess his/her understanding of the core concepts in the reading assignments and in online content.

Final Exam: There will be a final exam at the end of the course to assess students’ mastery of course content.
Learning Objectives/Outcomes
At the end of this course, students will:

- Investigate the knowledge claims of self and others;
- Use strategic thinking to negotiate to a specific outcome;
- Demonstrate a working knowledge of bargaining and collaborative negotiation;
- Understand the influence of internal and external factors on the process of negotiation; and
- Understand the ethical practices of negotiation.

Teaching Philosophy
I am eager to engage students who are independent learners and thinkers and who are eager to improve their conflict resolution skills.

Technical Requirements/Assistance
The following information is provided to assist you in preparation for the technological aspects of the course.

- Hardware necessary to use Canvas
- Word
- Internet access and a supported browser - use Firefox or Chrome
- Computer and Internet Literacy: http://clt.odu.edu/osm/index.php?src=pe_comp_lit
- Necessary plug-ins
- Headset or microphone
- Webcam

For human help: http://www.unt.edu/helpdesk

Access and Log in Information
The course was developed and will be facilitated utilizing the University of North Texas Learning Management System, Canvas. Students must use their EUIDs and passwords to log in to the course. Students who do not know their EUID or have forgotten their password should go to: http://ams.unt.edu.

Student Resources
As a student, you will have access to:

https://community.canvaslms.com/community/answers/guides/canvas-guide/getting-started/pages/student

https://community.canvaslms.com/docs/DOC-10701

Being a Successful Online Student
- What Makes a Successful Online Student?
- Self Evaluation for Potential Online Students
What Should Students Do First?

- Go to the home page and review: Welcome!, Getting Started, Technical Requirements of Course.
- Students should submit the following information to the instructor via a Canvas Message the first week of class:
  - EUID
  - Best phone number and email address for emergency alerts

How Students Should Proceed Each Week for Course Activities

Students should access Canvas daily for announcements and messages regarding the course. Students will access each week’s assignments in the course syllabus and in the week’s module. Each module will be identified by the week number. For example, students should open the Week 1 module on the course home page during the first week of the course and the next week’s module each week thereafter.

Student Support

The University of North Texas provides student technical support in the use of Canvas and supported resources. The student help desk may be reached at:

Email: helpdesk@unt.edu
Phone: (940) 565-2324
In person: Walk-ins @ Sage Hall (Room 130)

Regular hours are maintained to provide support to students. Please refer to the website (http://www.unt.edu/helpdesk/hours.htm) for updated hours.

Communication

Information about the communication tools in the course and how they will be used:

Messages
For all course-related questions, please read this syllabus carefully before seeking assistance. You must use the message function in Canvas for all electronic communication with the Professor about the course. Should we communicate face-to-face or by phone, please restate your communication in a message so I may respond via message.

Students can expect a response from the instructor within 24-hours of sending a message during business hours. Messages may not be answered during the weekend.

If your concern is urgent during business hours, please call the office number provided and speak with me by phone or leave a message. If you leave a message outside of business hours, you can expect to receive a response no later than one full business day after the message is left.
Announcements
Please check the Announcements in Canvas frequently for updated information and changes.

The Golden Rule Applies: Please extend the receiver of your message the same courtesy you would expect to receive when communicating. Please read and consider the content of the message before responding. Rudeness, disrespectful comments, profanity and insults are not effective negotiation tactics and will produce consequences such as the loss of points, removal from or limits during group discussions, referral to the Dean of Students and/or removal from the course.

Assessments/Grading
Assessments
This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course:

- Discussion board = 25 points [1 x 25 points] = 25
- Zoom online discussions = 25 points [5 x 25 points each] = 125
- Assignments = 100 points [6 x 100 points each] = 600
- Exams = 100 points [5 x 100 points each] = 500
- Final exam = 200 points [1 x 200 points] = 200

Discussion Board
There is a discussion board assignment to encourage you to introduce yourself to the class while reflecting on your perception of negotiation. Students must write one post before having accessing other students’ first posts. Students must then submit a second post that replies to another student’s post. This assignment is worth 25 points.

Attendance & Participation in Online Discussions
Students must connect during all online discussion sessions and will earn 25 points for each. Although participation is required and students will benefit greatly from it, points are awarded for submission of a short assignment and confirmed attendance.

Assignments
Each assignment requires students to think critically or reflect and write about assigned topics. These assignments are not timed, but do have a deadline for submission. Each assignment is worth 100 points. A grade for each assignment will be awarded and posted in Canvas.

Exams
Each exam is timed and has a deadline for completion. Please read the on-screen instructions carefully before beginning. After all exams are graded and released, the score will be posted in Canvas. Each exam is worth 100 points.
Final Exam
The final exam is cumulative and is designed to assess your understanding of the negotiation process. In addition to general questions about course concepts, you will be given a negotiation scenario to analyze. The final exam is worth 200 points.

Grading Scale
Total Points = 1450

Accessing Grades
Grades will be accessible to students in Canvas after assigned course work is completed by all students and graded.

A Note on Grammar and Writing: Being able to communicate well in writing is one of the marks of an educated person and is important in most professions. As a result, it will be emphasized in this course. It is always a good idea to proofread your own work for errors before submission. Students who do not have strong writing skills should consider having another person proofread the paper and/or use the services of the UNT Writing Lab. Students can meet with a tutor in person at the main location in the Auditorium Building (AUDB 105), or participate in an online tutoring session.

The errors listed below or those similar in nature will result in a 1-point loss in the written work assigned for this class every time they appear:
- Using incorrect punctuation or lack of punctuation.
- Failing to capitalize words appropriately, such as, “i” instead of “I”.
- Failing to write a complete sentence.
- Misuse of the following words and other similar word choice errors:
  - affect/effect
  - dominate/dominant
  - for/four
  - its/it’s
  - quite/quiet
  - there/they’re/their
  - then/than
  - to/too/two
  - weather/whether
  - woman/women
  - your/you’re
- Using made up words, such as “irregardless” (it’s “irrespective” or “regardless”) or “supposably” (it’s “supposedly”);
• Using misspelled words; and,
• Using abbreviations and/or phrases commonly used in text messages, such as “LOL”, “OMG”, “U R…”.

Course Policies Attendance and Participation
Connecting with and participating in all of the online discussion sessions are required. Late arrivals or early departures may cause students to earn fewer points for each.

Students who engage regularly typically experience greater success than those students who do not.

Information about the University of North Texas’ Attendance Policy may be found at: http://policy.unt.edu/policy/15-2-5.

Assignments
Students may discuss the assignments with each other, but must create their own work product in their own words and through individual effort. Due dates for all course work are posted in the instructions connected to each assignment. Your work should be submitted in the assignment by using the “Save” button. Students should complete work in a Word document and attach it in the page available. Students are advised to keep copies of their work in their records.

Exams
Exams are open-book and open-note; however, students may not discuss them with another student or other persons after opening the test or exam at any time unless all students have completed and submitted their answers.

Students may have the opportunity to attempt a test or exam an additional time if they lose their internet connection or have another technical problem beyond their control that prevents completion of the exam. The instructions for each exam will address the appropriate course of action to take in the event of technical difficulties. Opportunities for additional attempts will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Late Work
The professor will base decisions regarding acceptance of and credit for late work consistent with UNT and course policies. An extension may be given under limited circumstances, including but not limited to, the student’s or a close family member’s illness or injury; death of a close family member; or other major life event. If a student believes he/she will miss or has missed assigned course work, the student must contact the professor within two (2) days after the course work’s due date has passed. The student must provide written documentation of any such event upon request. If a student fails to timely contact the professor and/or provide the requested documentation, the student will not be given additional time to complete the assigned course work and will receive no credit for the assigned course work.
Syllabus Change Policy
Changes to the syllabus may be necessary at times. Communication of any changes will be made via an Announcement.

Course Evaluation

Online course evaluations (SPOT) will be available for students to complete. Please take time to visit my.unt.edu and fill out the evaluation form – your feedback is appreciated!

Scholarly Expectations

All works submitted for credit must be original works created by the student uniquely for the class. It is considered inappropriate and unethical to make duplicate submissions of a single work for credit in multiple classes, unless specifically requested by the instructor. Please see the policy on Academic Integrity below.

UNT and Department Policies Student Conduct

Any student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and will not be tolerated in any instructional setting at UNT. This includes traditional face-to-face classes, online or blended classes, labs, discussion groups or boards, field trips, and verbal and/or written (including email) communication with the instructor and/or other students. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to, disrespectful treatment of other students (verbal or written), disrupting lecture, and use of inappropriate or profane language or gestures in class or other instructional settings.

A student engaging in unacceptable behavior may be directed to leave the classroom or other instructional setting and may also be referred to the Dean of Students to consider whether his/her conduct violates UNT’s Student Code of Conduct. Conduct polices are found at: https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

Campus Carry and Concealed Handguns

In accordance with state law and UNT policy, students who are licensed may carry a concealed handgun on campus premises except in locations and at any function, event, and program prohibited by law or by this policy. Students may learn more about UNT’s concealed handgun policy at https://campuscarry.unt.edu.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity emanates from a culture that embraces the core values of trust and honesty necessary for full learning to occur. As a student-centered public research university, UNT promotes the integrity of the learning process by establishing and enforcing academic standards. Academic dishonesty breaches the mutual trust necessary in an academic environment and undermines all scholarship. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, forging the signature of the instructor or of another student, fabrication, and/or facilitating or sabotaging the academic dishonesty of other students.

Any suspected occurrence of academic dishonesty will be investigated and handled in accordance with UNT policy and procedures. The following academic penalties may be assessed at the instructor’s discretion upon determination that academic dishonesty has occurred. Admonitions and educational assignments are not appealable.

1. Admonition. The student may be issued a verbal or written warning.
2. Assignment of Educational Coursework. The student may be required to perform additional coursework not required of other students in the specific course.
3. Partial or no credit for an assignment or assessment. The instructor may award partial or no credit for the assignment or assessment on which the student engaged in academic dishonesty, to be calculated into the final course grade.
4. Course Failure. The instructor may assign a failing grade for the course.

Should the procedure for appeal of a case of academic dishonesty extend beyond the date when the instructor submits course grades for the semester, the student will be assigned a grade that reflects the penalty, which shall be adjusted, as appropriate, at the conclusion of any appeal process.

Specific details and description of UNT’s Policy on Student Standards of Academic Integrity (18.1.16) and students’ right to appeal are available at https://policy.unt.edu/policydesc/student-standardsacademic-integrity-18-1-16.

Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Assault

UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.
UNT’s Dean of Students’ website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources. Renee LeClaire McNamara is UNT’s Student Advocate and she can be reached through e-mail at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students’ office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.

Disability Accommodation

In accordance with university policies and state and federal regulations, UNT is committed to full academic access for all qualified students, including those with disabilities. To this end, all academic units are willing to make reasonable and appropriate adjustments to the classroom environment and the teaching, testing, or learning methodologies in order to facilitate equality of educational access for persons with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide the student with an accommodation letter to be hand delivered to the instructor to begin a private discussion regarding the student’s specific needs in the course.

Students may request accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Every semester, students must obtain a new letter of accommodation, and they must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class.

Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to request that students discuss such letters during their designated office hours in order to protect the privacy of the student.

For additional information, visit the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) in Sage Hall, suite 167, or their website at http://disability.unt.edu. You may also contact the ODA office by phone at 940.565.4323. Specific information on UNT’s policies related to disability accommodations is available at https://policy.unt.edu/policydesc/disability-accommodation-students-and-academicunits-18-1-14.

Please note that disability accommodations are not retroactively applied to the start of a course. Accommodations in the course become effective after the student has delivered an official accommodation letter from UNT’s ODA.

Important Dates

Important dates for the semester are found at: https://registrar.unt.edu/registration/spring-registration-guide

Requests for an Incomplete

University policies for students to request a grade of incomplete ("I") are available at: http://registrar.unt.edu/grades/incompletes.
Requests to drop the class
We want you to succeed in this class and at UNT. If you are concerned about your progress in the course, or believe you need to drop for other reasons, it is important that you contact the instructor as soon as possible. We want to make sure that dropping the course is your best or only option.

There are consequences to dropping classes that extend beyond losing your invested time, money, and effort. Dropping one or more classes may make you ineligible for financial aid. There are also limits on the number of courses you can drop. You can learn more about this at:
http://registrar.unt.edu/registration/dropping-class.

If you absolutely have to drop the course, you must do the following:

If you are dropping before the census date:

Students who wish to drop a course before the 12th class day of fall or spring terms/semesters or before the equivalent dates for 8 week and summer sessions may do so from their student portal at my.unt.edu or at the Office of the Registrar 1st floor location, ESSC 147. Please note that students wishing to drop the last class on their schedule for the session or term must complete a withdrawal with the Dean of Students.

If you are dropping after the census date:

After the 12th class day for fall or spring terms/semesters, or the equivalent date for 8 week and summer sessions, students must first submit a completed Request to Drop Class form to the Registrar's Office. Students applying for financial aid are required to notify Student Financial Aid and Scholarships before dropping any class to learn how it will affect current or future financial aid eligibility.

Students who drop a course between the 12th day of class and the designated day of a given semester's 10th week for fall or spring terms/semesters or the equivalent dates for 8 week and summer sessions, will receive a grade of W.

If you have any questions, please call the Registrar's Office at 940-565-2378 or come to the Eagle Student Services Center Room 147.

Professional Etiquette
The college experience is intended to assist in preparing students for professional and career pursuits. That preparation includes learning to use professional etiquette in dealing with people in positions of authority. The appropriate way to address your instructor depends on her/his particular education credentials. These are usually indicated on the course syllabus. If your instructor has a:

- Law degree (J.D.) you should address them as: Professor Instructor’s last name
- Doctorate (Ph.D. or Ed.D.), you should address them as: Dr. Instructor’s last name
- Master’s degree (MA, MS, MSW, MSSW) you should address them as: Professor Instructor’s last name
If you are not certain about an instructor’s education credentials, you should address them as “Professor.” It is not appropriate to call the instructor by his/her first name unless given permission.

Professional etiquette extends to all types of communication with your instructor. Written communication—including email—forms a permanent record and so it is important to use care about how you make requests, ask questions, or express concerns. Slang (e.g., Hey, Yo) and texting abbreviations should be avoided. The use of profanity is not permitted.

Any type of communication—verbal or written—is most likely to achieve the intended result when it is polite or courteous. Please note that communication can be polite even if there is some type of conflict involved. Instructors may choose not to respond to emails or other forms of communication that are perceived as insulting or disrespectful.

Emergency Notification and Procedures
UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all currently enrolled students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at https://my.unt.edu/.

Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include:
1) know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas in the buildings where your classes are held,
2) determine how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and 3) identify where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly.

In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses:
Federal Regulation:
To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website at http://ecfr.gpoaccess.gov. The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at "Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f) (6) (i) (G)" and can be found buried within this document: http://frwebgate.access.gpo.gov/cgi-bin/get
The paragraph reads:
(G) For F–1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F–1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance
To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student’s responsibility to do the following:
(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Policy on Server Unavailability or Other Technical Difficulties
The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and also contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.
