Description and Purpose of the Course:
To create a learning environment where all can explore the dynamics and intersectionality of individual identities and begin to think about applications to professional practice. Using inquiry, analyses, and problem solving skills, learners will identify diverse populations, understand laws, legislation, and court decisions protecting diverse populations, and consider how their professional practice can reduce prejudice and discrimination. Learners, over time, will create an inclusive mindset and become advocates for recreation, events, and sports for all members of a community.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will understand the diverse laws and legislation that are enforce to create a more diverse and accepting climate.
   A. Define diversity using current research and literature
   B. Define inclusion using current research and literature
   C. Identify and explain the levels of organizational inclusion
   D. Describe diversity laws and legislation: Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title VI, VII; Older Americans Act of 1965; Educational Amendments Act of 1972 and Title IX; Americans with Disabilities Action of 1985 and associated Titles; and Same-sex Marriage ruling 2015
   E. Recommend needed changes in the RESM profession related to diversity issues

2. Students will understand the nature of prejudice and discrimination as it relates to creating diverse environments.
   A. Define prejudice using current research and literature
   B. Define discrimination using current research and literature
   C. Create a personal definition of prejudice and discrimination related to these eight (8) dimensions of diversity: appearance; ability; age; gender; race/ethnicity; sexual and gender identity; spirituality and religion; and social class
   D. Assess your personal attitudes, values, and behaviors related to diversity issues

3. Students will be able to apply their diversity mindset to service delivery in the recreation, event, and sports professions
   A. Define the concepts of power and privilege
   B. Explain cultural competence
   C. Analyze issues of safe and supportive workplace environments related to diversity such as bullying and electronic aggression
   D. Engage and reflect on real-life exposure to people who are different than you
Methods of Instruction:

Course Policies and Practices

Assumptions
We share the common goal of you successfully completing this course and achieving the course learning outcomes. To do this, you will need to:

A. Complete readings by the date on the course schedule;
B. Come to class prepared to lead and engage in discussion of the topics on course schedule;
C. Recognize that materials on the exams will come from readings, class discussions, and all materials associated with the course;
D. Be professional and respectful to all associated with the course
Classroom Norms and Expectations
As discussed and agreed on in class. We will minimize distracting technology; read and watch assigned materials; come prepared to discuss and share ideas, engage in conversation, listen to each other; and demonstrate respect for ideas that may be sensitive or different than yours. By preparing and engaging in class, we will accomplish our work effectively and efficiently. We will function as a group, so if one person is not following norms and expectations, it impacts all.

Late Assignment
Plan ahead, assignments can always be turned in ahead of schedule. If you have a death in the family or a medical emergency, please share proper documentation with the instructor for accommodations, as soon as possible.

Attendance and Participation
You are a valued member of this learning community and your ideas contribute to the learning of all. Please come prepared to contribute by reading and preparing for class. Please notify the instructor will if you will miss class. You are expected to be in class and on time on exam days unless you have a death in the family or a medical emergency, please share proper documentation with the instructor for accommodations.

Use of Electronic Communication Devices
As a key member of this learning community, we will not use cell phones in class as we show respect for each other by actively listening. Cell phones should be in a silent mode and should not be taken out during class. We will expect digital citizenship from each other. If any electronic device disturbs the teaching and/or learning environment, the user will be asked to leave the class.

Eagle Mail (e-mail) and Canvas
Please activate and regularly check your Eagle Mail and RESM 5120 Canvas website for announcements and updates.

Writing Requirements
APA guidelines for writing will be used for this course. I recommend you use Purdue’s OWL http://owlenglish.purdue.edu/ as a guideline. All written assignments should be typed in 12-point Times Roman font, double spaced with 1-inch margins. A cover page with the name of the assignment and your full name should be attached. There should also be a reference page to identify the sources you used in your paper. Please carefully proof your writing for content, clarity, grammar, punctuation, and spelling. These elements will be part of the grading criteria.

Students with Disabilities
The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. The student has the responsibility of informing the course instructor of any disabling conditions that will require course modifications. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at disability.unt.edu.
Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA Information):
Students have the right to expect their grades will be kept confidential. There are a few things, because of the size of the size and/or nature of the class, the instructor must advise you of regarding collection and distribution of test results, quiz scores, assignments, projects, etc. During this class it may be necessary for you to pass your assignments forward to the instructor or it may be necessary for the instructor to call your name and then return your completed assignment to you by passing it across the room. The instructor, under the reasonable assumption guidelines, assumes students are collecting ONLY their own materials. Every attempt will be made to keep your information confidential. Neither your course grades nor grades for any individual assignment will be posted in a way that could result in your being identified by other students or faculty members.

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences:
Consistent with the University of North Texas policies, scholastic dishonesty will result in you failing the course. The course will be governed by all policies described in the UNT Code of Student Conduct and UNT policy on Student Standards for Academic Integrity. If you are unsure about an academic or professional behaviors, please ask.

Syllabus
The instructor may change this course syllabus at any time during the course.
