Help

The classroom help forum in Blackboard provides a place for you to ask the questions that you would normally ask during class. Keep in mind that questions posted here can be viewed by everyone in the class. You can ask questions about navigating blackboard, the syllabus, class policies, or concepts. If you need to discuss your grades, use email or schedule an appointment with me. You may send a text to my cell phone if you need a quick response to a question, but it is generally not a good idea to call me without warning and I will not be able to discuss grades over the phone.

I also use the classroom help forum to post answers to unassigned workbook pages, review sheets, and other important information. You should monitor the classroom discussion forum to stay informed.

The Academic Help Center is located in Wooten Hall, room 320 and will be open Monday through Thursday, 10:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Academic Assistants in the Help Center can help you with material and assignments in the workbook, including checking answers on completed assignments before submitting online for grading.

For Technical Help, contact the UNT Student Help Desk at email: helpdesk@unt.edu or by phone: 940-565-2324.

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, I will provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Report problems to me and also contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940-565-2324. It is your responsibility as an online student to have the necessary hardware, software, and plug-ins, a compatible web browser, and reliable internet access.

Class Policies

THERE ARE NO MAKE-UP EXAMS and no exam grades are dropped. If you miss an exam, notify me within 48 hours and provide acceptable documentation to show that your absence is excused. Per department policy, I can replace a missing exam grade with a score based on the comprehensive final exam if you provide documentation showing you have a university-accepted excuse (illness, military service, or university-related travel).

You will be informed about any opportunities to earn extra credit points during the last week of class. I do not offer opportunities to earn additional points on an individual basis because all students enrolled in the class deserve an equal chance for a good grade.

See http://registrar.unt.edu/registration/summer-registration-guide for detailed information about dropping or withdrawing. If you need to drop the class, go to the department office (Wooten Hall, room 325) by Wednesday, August 2nd to obtain a drop slip which I have already signed, then take the slip to the Eagle Student Center.

A grade of incomplete can be assigned according to UNT policy. Before requesting a grade of incomplete, read this policy at http://registrar.unt.edu/grades/incompletes.
ODA Accommodations

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class.

Since this is an online class, there is likely no need to schedule exams in the ODA office, but students needing additional time will need to provide documentation. If other accommodations are needed, please contact me to discuss as soon as possible.

For additional information, see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Graded Discussion

You can earn up to 50 points by participating in the graded discussion threads in Blackboard. The quality and quantity of your discussion for the entire course will be assessed at the end of the class. For maximum credit (50/50) post at least once per week (five total) with at least 50 words in response to one of the discussion prompts or in response to another person. Questions or comments posted in the classroom help forum do not receive credit.

Current Event Article Summaries

You can earn up to 50 points by reading and summarizing two current event articles.

Find two current articles (published in 2016 or 2017) using news sources like The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Economist, CNN, Time, Newsweek, Forbes, etc. The articles you select should cover unemployment, inflation, GDP, the federal budget/national debt, or macroeconomic policy tools (fiscal or monetary). Your two summaries must be posted separately and include properly formatted citations to receive credit for both. Each summary should be at least 100 words.

There will be point deductions if all requirements are not met (shorter than minimum length, not on a topic related to the class, using lengthy quotations without quotation marks, missing the citation, etc.).

If you post both of your current event article summaries by 11:59 p.m. Friday, August 4th (and all requirements are met) you will receive up to 50/50 points. You can post summaries as early as you like, no need to wait!

If you post both of your current event article summaries by 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, August 9th (and all requirements are met) you will receive up to 40/50 points. No credit will be awarded for anything posted after August 9th.
